MLPI v. MYCA LLC, No. 08 Civ. 511 (CLB) (LMS) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Smith:

I am writing to advise you of the first meeting which I held on July 30, 2008 as Special Master in the captioned actions.

The meeting was attended by Thomas H. Golden of Wilkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, attorney for the plaintiffs, Philip H. Gitlen of Whiteman Osterman & Hanna LLP and Michael D. Lockard and Elizabeth J. Young of Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP, attorneys for the defendants, Mark G. Bosswick and Rita Pierre of Berdon LLP, the independent accountants, Mark Massey and Cornell M. Fauntleroy of Armstrong Management, Corp., the managing agent for the properties and me.

In order to determine if an agreement can be reached on how to split up the properties among the partners, I suggested a procedure where the parties will submit to me and to Mr. Bosswick their respective proposals. In this regard, the parties agreed to the following time table:

1. By August 8th the parties will agree on what properties, in addition to the ones which are the subject of the captioned actions, will be subject to the procedure and what additional information the parties will need to make their proposals.
2. If the properties consist only of the three properties which are the subject of the captioned actions and the two properties which are the subject of two similar actions in New York State Supreme Court, the proposals will be submitted by September 8th. If three additional properties are to be included in the procedure, the proposals will be submitted by October 6th.

Based on the proposals, we will determine if there is any basis for the parties to reach an agreement on splitting up the properties.

The following was agreed to with respect to the accounting:

1. The accounting will initially be with respect to calendar years 2005 through 2008.
2. The following will be included in the accounting:
  - Review of the allocation of expenses among various properties.
  - If there were appropriate authorizations to enter into the management agreements with the prior managing agent.
  - Whether the fees of Fulbright & Jaworski LLP, attorneys for the partnerships, were properly charged to the partnerships.
  - Whether the management and leasing commissions of the prior managing agent were correctly calculated.
  - A capital account reconciliation.

In addition, Mr. Bosswick will provide the parties with a list of additional work which may be included in the accounting and an estimate of the cost thereof. The parties will advise Mr. Bosswick by August 15th of which additional items they wish to include in the accounting.

The plaintiff will be sending to me and the attorneys for the defendants by August 11th a list of the deficiencies in the management of the properties and the management reports which have been prepared by the managing agent. By August 15th, the attorneys for the plaintiffs will provide me with their comments to the deficiency report. I will be doing a tour of the properties on August 18th.

In addition, the parties will decide if they will agree to have Mr. Bosswick appointed as the independent accountant to do an accounting in the State court actions and whether to have me appointed as a referee in those actions.

Very truly yours,

Lawrence J. Lipson
